

Jane Lohn Cosler

September 19, 1958 - December 18, 2017

Family and Friends,

As you may have heard, our beloved Jane suffered a traumatic brain injury from a fall on Sunday, December 10th. This injury led to a comatose state from which she could not recover. In honoring Jane's end of life wishes, her family and her medical team shifted their goal to keeping her comfortable and she passed peacefully on Monday, December 18th.

Jane was born on September 19, 1958, in Lakewood, Ohio, one of seven children born to John George and Mary Jeanne Nageotte Lohn. She grew up in Westlake, Ohio. She attended school at The Ohio State University, earning her business degree. Her first day of college, she met the love of her life, Doug Cosler, whom she went on to marry in 1978. She worked as a systems analyst for a company she started, Advantage Technology Solutions. In December of 2008, she and Doug moved to Matthews.

During these trying times, we must focus our emotions on what made Jane the dynamic spirit that undeniably touched each of our fortunate lives. She remarkably manipulated volumes of academic and entrepreneurial accolades into an unfairly abbreviated life. Her beauty and class gracefully captivated our senses, while her unmitigated crusade for kindness helped warm the hearts of strangers and cherished kin. She will never be forgotten and continue to be held in our hearts around the world. Most of all, she loved the time spent with family and friends and she will be greatly missed by all who were blessed to know the life, love and laughter of Jane. She is survived by: her husband, Doug of Matthews; three sisters: Barbara, Susan, Nancy; two brothers: Timothy and Patrick; and numerous other family and friends. She was preceded in death by her parents and a brother, Jerry.

At this difficult time, we respectfully ask for privacy in our mourning. There will be a celebration of Jane's life scheduled later in 2018. When details are finalized, they will be made available and shared with all.

Love and Peace,
The Family of Jane Cosler

Doug, I'm somewhat speechless; I happened upon this information just now. I'm so, so sorry, I loved Jane and we had many good times together. I love you Doug, get in touch any time, ever. Love, Pam Rogal

“ What an awesome thread. I’m still in denial. I was only blessed with knowing Jane for a few short years, but in that time, I loved her like she was my own Aunt. Early on in our relationship, Brittany told me over and over how I needed to meet her Uncle Doug and Aunt Jane. We went for a visit for Brittany’s first birthday we shared together, and I couldn’t help but feel loved from the first moment I met them. We were able to cram many visits into the three years I’ve known them. I was always a fan of the Charlotte area, so it was no problem to visit them as often as possible. Besides, it was impossible to turn down their hospitality. I mean, who snacks on shrimp cocktail while watching NFL playoff games?? Aunt Jane, that’s who :-) We were able to create so many memories in that short time. Two of my favorites were taking them to their first Nascar race in Charlotte, and dragging the boat all the way down to put it on Lake Norman. Fishing Lake Norman was always one of my bucket list items, and to share that moment with them is unforgettable. It still seems so surreal. Jane was an amazing lady, and I’m still in disbelief that I won’t ever get to have another early morning conversation with her over coffee while Brittany is getting ready and Doug is sleeping in. We had some amazing conversations on that back porch. I’ll cherish those talks for the rest of my life! I told Brittany, I haven’t known Jane nearly as long as everyone else, and didn’t feel I deserve to be grieving as much as her family. But, her incredible light had such a huge impact on me in those short few years, that it’s broken my heart thinking I’ll never see her again. I just keep reminding myself how blessed I was to have the time I did. I’ll miss you Aunt Jane, but I also know that you’ll always be with us! I can’t wait for Brittany to become my wife this year, and it gives me great comfort knowing Aunt Jane will be right there, watching over our marriage :-) She was so loved, and will be so incredibly missed. -- by Michael Bowen

“ Jane was one of four beautiful cousins of mine. I think I might have been the genesis of Uber, in that when she was attending OSU, I would ferry her from school back home to Cleveland during breaks. She, like the rest of her family, was a kind, sensitive person. I'm heartbroken.
My brothers and sisters send our deepest sympathies and love.

“ I am honored to have considered Jane my friend! She always went out of her way to make everyone feel comfortable and feel "included". When we would dine out she would have a difficult time deciding which dessert she wanted so she would order all of them and share with everyone! You will be missed Jane!

“ Doug - I am sending you hugs and kisses. I am so very blessed to have had so many amazing memories of Jane. I think back to visiting you two in Boston, New Hampshire and Portland. I remember her helping coordinate the Coslers coming to share Spencer's Bar Mitzvah. Jane was always so welcoming to me and made me feel right at home in the Cosler family! She and I shared the love of cooking, making appetizers and Equality. She made Spencer so happy every year when he walked into Christmas and saw "Janes Special Assortment"! I am so blessed to have share many special memories with the amazing Miss Jane. She touched my sole and will always be in my heart. Thanks for sharing her with us. She will be missed greatly and remembered always. My sincere condolences to you and all of Jane's Family and friends.

“ I will forever cherish the mornings Jane and I spent in my kitchen prepping for Thanksgiving meals every year! We had some of the best chats! Never would i have imagined that this one would be the last Thanksgiving we shared. I'm sure we solved world problems while we chopped! Such a beautiful person, such intelligence, success and yet still so humble. Forever in my heart she will be.....just one of my special memories

“ We are heartbroken by Jane's sudden and unexpected passing. We have loved Jane as part of our family for forty years. Her love of life, nature, education, business, the arts, fashion, cooking, entertaining and so much more have been an inspiration to us all.

Jane and I had a special bond from the very beginning. We never had to talk about it - we just knew!

I have so many memories of spending time with Jane. Whenever we were together, we delighted in sharing recipes, talking politics and current events and watching our favorite shows.

I can't fathom life without Jane in it. We will endure and get by, but nothing will be quite the same.

Jane, you will always be loved, never forgotten and forever missed.

“Doug, I can't believe Jane is gone. I'm really going to miss her. We had some great Saturday morning conversations, where we were able to solve almost all the world's problems. She enjoyed life and loved you and her family with a passion.
