“ Jeff was the best friend I ever had. Our friendship goes way back to Elementary school. Those years in the late 50's, 60's and 70's, were the best years to grow up in North Charlotte. From going to the YMCA, to catching pop flies at the ballpark, or on Sunday's walking with his grandfather down the railroad tracks with their 3-legged dog and much-much more. Every time we hung out together would be a day of fun and laughter. When I would stop by to see him, we could easily go down memory lane together. Jeff was like a brother to me, but more than that he is and will always be my, PAL.

“ Me and Jeff grew up together as kids. Our families stayed close as adults. We watch our kids grow up together. There wasn't a day that past by that we didn't talk. If Jeff couldn't make you laugh, something was wrong. His jokes and stories were hilarious. Jeff was like a brother to me. He will truly be missed. Benny Parker and family
