

Jennifer Lynn Fort

July 15, 1979 - April 6, 2017

Jennifer Lynn Fort, 37, of Charlotte, died Thursday, April 6, 2017, at the CMC Main Campus in Charlotte after courageously battling leukemia.

Jennifer was born in Albany, New York, on July 15, 1979, the daughter of William “Bill” and Kathy Weinheimer Cramer. She grew up in Castleton, New York, graduating from Maple Hill High School. Jennifer went on to work in medical records and transcriptions. She moved to Charlotte about six years ago.

Jennifer’s biggest loves in life were her family and friends and she will be sadly missed by all who knew her.

She is survived by her fiancé, Alberto Ortiz of Charlotte; her parents, Bill and Kathy who moved to Charlotte when she became ill; her brother, Michael Cramer of San Francisco; her brother Mark Cramer of Charlotte; and her favorite canine companion, Coco. She is further survived by her cousin Melissa (husband Nicholas) Schetzel and their daughter Isabella as well as numerous other cousins, aunts, uncles, relatives and friends. Jennifer was preceded in death by her grandparents, her uncle Fenny and her aunt Karen.

Jennifer’s family has given the family of Lowe-Neddo Funeral Home the privilege of caring for her and for them.

“ Jennifer, I know you are watching over Mom, Dad, Michael and Mark and all of your family and friends. I never ask much of anyone and my request is not for me. Please, Jen, give Mom a special sign so she knows you are close to her. It is extremely hard on her and she misses you more than words can say. I love you Jennifer!!
