

John Dennis Ferry Jr

April 20, 1939 - December 28, 2016

John Dennis Ferry, Jr, 77, of Charlotte, went to his heavenly home on December 28, 2016, at his residence.

Johnny was born in Charlotte on April 20, 1939, the son of John Dennis Ferry Sr and Bessie Macy Coley. He married Sarah Walkup Belk who preceded him in death. Gifted with the use of his hands, he worked many years at the Idlewild Country Club where he performed numerous tasks in their foodservice department as well as caring for the course and general maintenance. When not working, he enjoyed time at home watching action shows on television. Most of all, he loved the time spent with family and friends.

Johnny is survived by his daughter, April Ferry, of Charlotte; his niece, Mary Richar of Monroe; his niece Cathy McClary of Charlotte; his nephew, Dennis Ferry of New York; his aunt, Louvina Wingate of Monroe; and his aunt Kathleen Piercy of Monroe. He is further survived by numerous other relatives and friends. In addition to his wife, Johnny was preceded in death by his brother, Joseph Frank Ferry.

Johnny's family has given the family of Lowe-Neddo Funeral Home the privilege of caring for him. Services were privately held. Please take a moment to visit his Tribute Wall and share a memory or photo.

Tribute Wall

“ John Dennis Ferry Jr

October 05, 2023 at 07:26 AM

“ John Dennis Ferry Jr

October 24, 2022 at 08:52 PM

“ I am proud of my dad for being a hard working. What I appreciate most about my dad is not complaining about having a job. I never heard him cussing or complaining about his employer or coworkers. Being mom dad's daughter has taught me to go to work to work not goof around all day. The character quality I most admired about him is diligence to his work.

April Ferry - February 09, 2017 at 05:23 PM