

Julius Michael Mullis

October 17, 1950 - October 8, 2019

Julius Michael Mullis, 68, of Mint Hill, passed away on Tuesday, October 8, 2019 at his residence. Julius was a longtime resident of Mint Hill and spent many years of his life in the automobile business. Mr. Mullis was born to his late parents Watson Hunter Mullis and Bertha Blandina Allen in Charlotte, on October 17, 1950. With an exception to small stints in Atlanta and Houston, he spent most of his life in Charlotte and Mint Hill. He is survived by his son Michael "Mully" Allen Mullis and wife Susanne, grandchildren, Gabriel and Matthew. He is also survived by a dear and close friend, Bo Brock. Mr. Mullis enjoyed playing golf, and watching sports such as the Dallas Cowboys, Chicago Cubs and NASCAR races. Julius enjoyed playing in race and football pools with his friends. Mr. Mullis will be dearly missed by everybody who knew him. There will be a private memorial service held at a later date.

“ So sorry to hear of the passing of our classmate, Julius. He was always a friendly and funny guy and always seemed to enjoy life. I enjoyed knowing him in high school and calling him a friend. Truly a loss for the Mullis family and for our Class of 69 at "Big I".
