Wilson of Denver, CO, and Amy (husband David) Rogers of Denver, CO; a grandson, Calvin Rogers of Denver; and two sisters: Ronnie Patton of Charlotte and Janet (husband Jim) Faulkner of Charlotte. She is further survived by numerous other family and friends. June was preceded in death by her parents and an older sister, Lillian Haigler.

“ I will always remember this sweet lady who was kind, loving, and sincere. She welcomed you into her home and made you feel special as though you were always a part of the family. My favorite times were just sitting around the dining room table listening to the family stories that she and Arnold shared and witnessing the loving relationship that flowed between them. She was and they are an inspiration to me.

“Classy Lady”

As I remember June it will always be with respect and love for the classy lady that she was. She was always a kind, warm and loving person who opened her home and welcomed you in. She had a grace about her that always made you feel special as though you were and had always been a part of the family that she loved so much. For me, the best memories will always be just sitting around the dining room table listening to the stories of so long ago and watching the happiness and love that she and Arnold shared. My thoughts and prayers will be with you all.

“June Bug, as lovingly called by Arnold, I can still hear him saying it, and can still see her face light up full of love by hearing it. She was a true friend to my mom and dad until their passing. My Mom and June grew up together, raised families together, cried together, but most importantly laughed and loved together. I am sure that the laughter and joy of them being together again is filling the heavens with beautiful sound! She was a wonderful hug when you needed it, a warm and caring voice when you needed to talk, and the most wonderful role model for a child to have. Her unique voice and wonderful loving spirit will be missed by all who ever had the joy, honor, and pleasure to know her. June and Arnold. What a wonderful couple put together by the grace of God, enlightening everyone by their presence. May God be with you Arnold, may all your glorious memories sustain you! I know June is telling my Dad all the latest "Arnold jokes" she can, and they are laughing it up! May the Lord give you all the peace and loving memories of June. I loved her deeply, and always will forever hear her beautiful laugh.

“ Our fondest memories were visits from June and Buck to Nemaocolin, Pa. There were always films of June's clogging classes and competitions, Buck's teasing her and a lot of shared memories, jokes, etc. The laughter would roll out from the front porch swing into the streets, and it was contagious. June's soft voice, beautiful smile will make God's kingdom brighter. We will miss you June.

Love Bobby, Susan, and family.

“ June's beautiful voice and loving spirit was such an important part of FUMC for 60 plus years. I can hear her singing "Were You There" from the church balcony during Holy Week, year after year. It was such a meaningful part in our spiritual journey to Easter. God bless you "June Bug" and thank you for sharing your talents to enrich our lives. Our thoughts, prayers and love surround Arnold and all the Wilson family. Laura & Hoytt
