Karyn Monique Loudon-Budhai, 51, of Locust, died on Saturday, May 13, 2023.

Monique was born in Brooklyn, NY, on September 12, 1971, the daughter of Harold and Berryl Nelson Loudon. She graduated high school and attended SUNY New Paltz. Blessed with a talent to deal with people, she went on to work for Astra Zeneca as a Senior Pharmaceutical Representative. Wherever she went, she set high goals and attained them, earning accolades and awards no matter where she applied herself.

When not working, Monique loved to debate African American History, which was her college degree. An avid reader, she also enjoyed music and decorating her home. She was very excited that her husband was even in the process of setting up a studio in her home as she used to sing with a group called "Mahogany" in her younger years. Most of all, Monique was a people person who enjoyed the time spent with family and friends. On February 14, 2011, she married Ian Budhai, in Maplewood, New Jersey.

Monique is survived by her husband, Ian; a son, Ray Gable Jr.; a daughter, Renee Budhai; her siblings: Dean Loudon, Andrew Loudon, Andrea Millington; her uncle, Lloyd Taitt. She is further survived by her sister-in-law, Andrea Solomon; brother-in-law Kirk Budhai; and numerous other relatives, professional associates, clients and friends.

Monique's family has given the family of Lowe-Neddo Funeral Home the privilege of caring for her and for them. Friends are welcome to call upon the family on Friday from 2 pm to 4 pm at the funeral home, 4715 Margaret Wallace Road, Matthews, NC 28105. At 3 pm, all will gather in the chapel for a memorial service.

“ My sincere condolences to Ian and family.

Monique, I did not see you close your eyes or hear your last sigh. I only heard that you were gone, too late to say goodbye. Your life was a blessing, your memory a treasure. You were loved beyond words and will be missed beyond measure. Rest in peace, until we meet again.

“ *I am Richard Armstrong, a very close friend of Monique(Mo-Mo) and her late mother Beryl Loudon. When Mo-Mo was attending SUNY-New Paltz. Monique's mother and I drove in a heretic snow storm to New Paltz to see Mo-Mo perform in a college play. Unfortunately, the storm caused Mo-Mo's mother and I arrive late. This was my first opportunity to meet the very energetic, enthusiastic, young Monique Loudon. In the forthcoming years, Monique(Mo-Mo) continue to develop her superb business skills including selling automobiles. Mo-Mo was excited with the birth of son, Ray. Mo-Mo's other excitement was her marriage to the dramatic Ian which was always a joyful highlight of our friendly conversations. Including last year's conversation, regarding her impending retirement to Charlotte, NC. with Ian. I guess, I was a father figure as I remembered Mo-Mo's infectious laugh. May the Heavenly Angels deliver Mo-Mo's soul to a peaceful rest at the Lord's house. With Condolences and Respect.
