

Kay Dunham Brake

March 14, 1947 - December 16, 2015

Kay Brake, age 68, of Charlotte, passed away Wednesday, December 16, 2015 after a courageous battle with heart and kidney disease.

Born March 14, 1947 to Madge and William Mangum Dunham Jr, Kay grew up one of five children on a farm in White Oak, NC. She moved to Charlotte to attend Kings College and met her husband, Henry Brake. The couple lived in Charlotte where they raised their only child, their daughter, Allyson.

Kay was a medical office manager for Dr. John Culp for most of her professional career and worked also worked at Horizon Eye Care before she retired. Kay was a devoted wife, an unselfish loving mother, and her biggest passion in her heart came with the birth of her two grandchildren, Jace and Alexa Weir. Kay was always eager and dedicated to support Alexa at dance and Jace playing basketball.

Kay was known to be a "Nanny" to all children. She loved people and always had a smile and kindness to offer, even to strangers. Her outgoing spirit and blessing will be sadly missed by all who knew her.

She is survived by her daughter, Allyson of Matthews, NC; a grandson, Jace; a granddaughter, Alexa; her brothers Billy Dunham, Richard Dunham and Steve Dunham; and her sister, Linda Bryant. Kay was preceded in death by her parents and her husband, Henry.

A graveside service will be held at 2 pm at the Bethlehem United Methodist Church in White Oak, NC, on Saturday, December 19, 2015. A memorial service in Charlotte will be held at 1pm on Saturday, January 2, 2016, at Cokesbury United Methodist Church. The family will receive friends following the service.

In memory of Kay, the family respectfully requests any donations be made in her name to the American Heart Association at www.heart.org or to the American Lung Association at www.lung.org.

Thank you for your love and support of the family during this time. Please take a moment to visit Kay's Tribute Wall and share a memory or photo with them.

“ Your words for Kay in the obituary are so true. She was always devoted to her family and spent her life making things better for the ones she loved. We will forever hold her in our hearts as we move forward striving to achieve the goals she would love to help us reach.. God blessed all with Kay for many years. I cherish the wonderful memories we have to carry with us through the coming years.

“ Our hearts and prayers have been with all of you during this time with our precious Kay.
She was a great lady with a quiet spirit until Jace, her grandson was shooting "three pointers!" What a blessing it has been to know her and to love her during all of these years. She will be missed in so many ways this Season and for years to come. We love each of you and are thankful for the moments that we have been together!!

Love,
The Sawyers
