“ Ken was so much more than a mentor—he was my friend, my big brother, my father figure, and the walking definition of ‘showing up.’ This photo from Lake George in 1994 takes me back to the warmth of his grin, the way he made me laugh at even the corniest jokes, and how he’d say, ‘You’re a good kid—don’t ever forget it.’ In a world where my own father wasn’t around, Ken stepped in and filled that gap without hesitation. He taught me to see the good in myself, to believe in bigger possibilities, and to embrace the occasional dud movie like it was a priceless treasure. I’ll never forget how he protected me, how he respected my family, and how he loved me as if I were his own. I miss him like crazy, but the love and laughter he poured into my life will keep shining in every memory, especially this one.

“ I was friends with Kenneth many years ago and he was a kind and generous man always. We drifted apart and I have not seen him in many years but always wished I would see him again. Now I cannot and I am deeply saddened by his passing. I pray for his family and loved ones knowing the incredible loss they must feel having lost this wonderful man. Rest in peace my friend Moose until we meet again. Your friend Gerard Mooney
