I met kevin about a year and a half ago. He was my sister's next door neighbor. We became fast friends. I looked forward to going on motorcycle rides with him but never got the chance. I made him a sign that reads "hog pen". He was a great guy. I want every one to know i will surely miss him. Farewell my friend. Farewell.

“ The Kevin I knew was sweet, intelligent, and talented. I'm praying for all of the family and friends in this tough time. Please know that God is with you and is there for your comfort. I know it might be hard to understand why something so traumatic would happen to the one you love, but God has a purpose for everything. Trust in him and it will all be okay in time. He will be missed greatly.
