

Kevin Lee Stevenson

May 5, 1958 - August 2, 2016

Kevin Lee Stevenson, 58, of Matthews, died Tuesday, August 2, 2016, at the Levine and Dickson Hospice House at Southminster in Pineville, NC.

The Stevenson family has given the family of Lowe-Neddo Funeral Home the privilege of caring for them. Visitation will take place Saturday, August 6, 2016, from 5 to 8 PM at the funeral home, 4715 Margaret Wallace Road, Matthews, NC 28105. Services will be held in the funeral home chapel at 10 AM on Sunday, August 7, with visitation held again from 9 AM until the service.

Kevin Stevenson was born on May 5th 1958 in Brooklyn New York, to the late Parnell Stevenson and Stella Stevenson. He was educated in the New York public school system, graduating from Franklin K. Lane High School.

Kevin was the third oldest of five siblings; one of whom, Thomas Hinson, preceded him in death.

Kevin was a mild mannered young man. He was dependable and loving and had a great sense of humor.

Kevin accepted the Lord at a very young age. From the very beginning he was loyal and committed to ministry. No day was too long or night too short for Kevin when it came to the service of his leader, his aunt and Pastor, Mother Apostle Callie Mae Jasper...

Many people consider Kevin to have been the greatest armor bearer there ever was. There's no way to describe the dedication and commitment he exhibited. He taught many saints the principles of armor bearing and they are using the same principles they learned from him to this very day. Kevin was loved by many he befriended. It didn't matter what color, cultural background, or age. Kevin was a "people" person.

Kevin married Cereas McDuffie on February 8th, 1978. From this union came three sons; Kevin Stevenson Jr, Kenneth Stevenson and Kendall Stevenson. After having served many years as a deacon at Holy City Ministries in New York, Kevin migrated to Sumpter SC Where he served at Holy City Ministries under The Apostle Jeffrey Jasper. He later moved to Charlotte NC where he served as an Elder and Prophet under the leadership of Apostles Bernie and Diane van Buren, at Prophetic Destiny Kingdom Embassy. At this time his health had declined, but his faith never waned, and he continued to stand in the ministry of the prophetic.

On Tuesday morning, August 2, 2016 precisely at 7:45 AM Kevin graduated beyond this earthly realm to now stand in the presence of the Lord.

He leaves to mourn his wife, Cereas Stevenson, his son, Kevin Stevenson Jr and his fiancée Melissa Hartzell, , his son, Kenneth Stevenson and his wife Erica Stevenson along with their three children; Laila, Gabrielle and Ayden, his son Kendall Stevenson and his wife Andrea Stevenson along with their four children; his daughter's Kayla Coston, Faith Coston, his sister Valerie Levant and her husband Victor Levant of Brooklyn NY; his sister April Stevenson of Oceanside California; his sister Claire Willis-Baker and her husband Gregory Baker of Staten Island NY ; two Aunts, Pastor Girzine Taylor of Brooklyn NY and Mother Apostle Callie Mae Jasper of Queens NY ; his Uncle William Hinson of Florida; his nephew Anthony Rice, niece Yolanda (Dondi) Rice, nephew Michael Willis, niece Octavia Willis, niece Jareema Donaldson, nephew Phillip Gary "special daughter" Vernita Bolton and a host of other nieces, nephews relatives and special friends.

Thank you for keeping the Stevenson Family in your thoughts, prayers and acts of kindness.

“ My name is Kim. My husband Robert started dialysis treatment with Kevin 2 years ago and soon gave him the nickname "Brooklyn". They often spoke about boxing and I was honored to meet Kevin through my husband while picking him up from dialysis treatment one Saturday. Every Saturday I take my husband and drop him off and my 2 kids Cameron and Shanelle grew a VERY strong bond with Kevin. Kevin even gave my son Cameron a pair of green shorts and a baseball cap and a T-shirt which he wears every Saturday when we would go pick my husband up and so Kevin could see how much he loved his gifts. Every Saturday while picking up my husband the kids would sit outside with Kevin as he waited on transportation to pick him up and they would sit with him a good 30 min just talking about life. They would bring him Jelly Beans to snack on as those were his favorite. We went on Saturday looking forward to see Kevin as he had stated a week earlier he had surgery lined up so we had his snack and were ready to give him hugs and love but after not seeing him someone had told us Kevin had passed and my son Cameron is 10 he took the news very badly as did my daughter, they both cried the rest of the day. They LOVED Kevin and what a free spirit he was. We are all very sad and upset we missed his funeral to pay our respects. He touched my kids lives with the small amount of contact he had with them. He took pictures of them on his phone also to remember them by. They still today have not gotten over the pain of knowing he is no longer with us. Our condolences to the family of Kevin he will be sadly missed by us all. Our love Kim, Robert, Cameron and Shanelle (Fresnius Dialysis Clinic Family) We lost a good and honest man and he will NEVER be forgotten

Roger thank you so much for posting this picture of my brother, you were truly a brother from another mother to him. You are family because of the love he had for you. Thank you for being there for him taking care of his lawn and more that we don't even know about, so I know the lost is great for you and pop, and our prayers go out for you all as well. God bless you and your family...beautiful people.

“ Reese and all of your precious family. Eddie and I are so very saddened about Kevin. We stand united in faith, love, trust and prayers, knowing that Kevin is in the arms of the Lord and his suffering, on earth is over. We love you, Reese and are always here for you. More important, the Lord, is holding you gently, comforting you and wiping your tears. <3 <3 <3
