

Kim Sparks Belk

March 16, 1957 - May 30, 2014

Kim Sparks Belk, 57, of Indian Trail, passed away Friday, May 30, 2014.

Kim was born in Spruce Pine, North Carolina, on March 16, 1957, the daughter of Virgil Wayne Sparks and Sybil Seagle. Kim enjoyed music, computers, reading, and cooking. When outdoors, she had a green thumb and enjoyed plants, flowers, watching the fall colors and leaves, and gardening. She had a fondness for canine companions including her current dog, “Buster”. Most of all, she loved helping others through little acts of kindness. Whether it was leaving candy for her fellow bus drivers on their dash or “sidewalk surfing” to find children’s toys for donating to children’s charities, she loved to help others. She spent the last 19 years as the driver of bus 82 for Union County Public Schools and she will be sadly missed by her friends, family, and all who knew her.

Kim is survived by her former husband, Clarence Belk of Monroe; a son, Thomas Dale Belk of Monroe; two brothers: Jeffrey Wayne Sparks of Mint Hill, NC, and Richard Alan Sparks of Matthews, NC; a sister Kristen Michele Sparks of Charlotte, NC; her father, Virgil Wayne (wife Sandra) Sparks of Badin, NC; her mother, Sybil Sparks of Charlotte; two aunts: Beverly (husband John) Butler of Chapin, SC, and Betty Jean (husband Gene) Lawing of Morganton, NC; and two cousins: Gail Lawing of Morganton, and Van Ray (wife Pam) Lawing of Asheville.

Kim is further survived by her extended family of bus drivers for Union County Public Schools as well as numerous other relatives and friends.

As Kim was always about helping and caring for others, her family would greatly appreciate any memorial donations in Kim's name be made to the American Cancer Society for ovarian cancer research. You may donate online at <https://donate.cancer.org/index> or to a children's charity of your choice.

“ Kim was my friend and a very special lady ... I miss her and I wish we had spent more time together ... Several things, in my mind, made her unique: She accepted you as you were, she didn't try to change you, she allowed you to be yourself ... She was also an encourager and a good listener, challenging you to pursue your dreams ... She was a very unselfish person, a thoughtful giver, showing interest and concern with what was happening in your life ... Kim, also, had a great sense of humor, both on the receiving and giving end, we had fun together ... Kim made a difference in my life, wish I had told her so, my life is more rich and fuller because of her friendship ... Ben.

“ I am sorry for the loss of your dear Kim. It may be comforting to know that the Bible gives each one of us a very real hope of actually enjoying life with our passed loved ones once again right here on this good earth. At John 5:28 and 29 Jesus himself tells us that those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice and come out to a resurrection of life, similar to how he resurrected his friend Lazarus. Lazarus was resurrected back to life on earth. That is in harmony with God's original purpose for humans, to "fill the earth and subdue it". (Genesis 1:28) God's original purpose for humans has not changed. To see our passed loved ones again on a beautified earth is a hope few dare to dream about, much less firmly believe in. But it is right there in every one of our Bibles. When some time has passed, feel free to visit jw dot org for more comfort. Again, I am sorry for your loss. MN
