“ To Ken, Brenda, Geneva, your spouses, your children and their children, I am sorry to hear about the passing of Estelle. She was in the same generation as my parents, the Fosters, Ledfords, Collins, etc. Litha Foster passed away last year. So, your mom was probably the last of those who joined Chantilly Baptist in the 50's and 60's and stayed on the membership roll until they passed. She was a faithful saint and servant and influenced for good the many children that passed through the Children's Department of Chantilly/Cornerstone. I'm sure y'all have many fond memories and the grandkids, who called her Bebe, have many fond memories as well.

“ A great Christian woman who truly loved to serve. She had a fantastic sense of humor. Her smile will be missed but her memories will live forever. Now she is celebrating with Mr. Marshbanks. Heaven is rejoicing in welcoming a child home. Oh what great days there will be "When We all Get to Heaven". See you again Mrs. Marshbanks.
