Lillie Mae Fleming

October 20, 1943 – May 21, 2025

With deep love and sorrow, we announce the passing of Lillie Mae Fleming, who transitioned this life at home, peacefully surrounded by her children.

Lillie was born on October 20, 1943, in Eastover, South Carolina, to the late Mary Jane Wider and Henry Wider. She graduated from Woodrow Wilson High School in Jamaica,

NY in 1960, and the following year married Edward Fleming (preceded in death).

Together they built a life grounded in love, faith, and family.

Lillie is also preceded in death by her big brothers John, Everett and Perry Wider, who shared the foundation of her strong family values.

She was the proud and devoted mother of Felicia Fleming, Darlene Fleming, Cheryl Woodham and Jason Fleming. She also leaves behind her daughter-in-law Nicole Fleming and son-in-law Steven Woodham. Her nurturing spirit and enduring strength shaped not only the lives of her children, but also her grandchildren and greatgrandchildren.

Lillie was blessed with 12 grandchildren: Taniqua, Jerell (preceded in death), Dayon, Jessica, Janeece, Steven, Shaun, Kayla, Jade, Maya, Jason, and Ciarah. Her joy grew even greater with the arrival of her seven great-grandchildren: Jesiah, Payten, Madyson, Ava, Nasir, Paris, and Prestyn. Her family was her pride and joy and she poured her heart into them and cherished each of them deeply. She loved nothing more than seeing her family grow and thrive and treasured every moment spent together.

Known for her warmth, wisdom and quiet strength, Lillie touched countless lives with her kindness and unwavering support. She found joy in life's simple pleasures, especially in her favorite pastime—bingo—which brought her laughter,

a bit of friendly competition.

Lillie will be remembered for her soft heart, her steady presence, and the unconditional love she extended to everyone around her. Her legacy of love, resilience and grace lives on in the generations she helped raise, in the hearts of all who knew her and the memories she leaves behind. She developed a strong bond with her in-laws, cousins, aunts and the many women she met through the years, including her “crew” at home. She leaves to mourn a host of extended family, friends, “daughters-in-love”, “sons-inlove”, “sister friends” and “buddies”, who truly love and will miss her dearly.

The family extends heartfelt thanks to everyone who sent prayers, condolences, flowers, donations and kind words during this time of loss. Your love and support have been a great comfort and are deeply appreciated.

“Divine Creator, we lift up the soul of Lillie Mae Fleming into Your eternal light. May she be welcomed with open arms into the realms of peace, where no sorrow lives and love flows endlessly. Let her spirit soar free, surrounded by the ancestors, guided by Your grace. We ask for healing for those who grieve and for strength to honor her memory by living with love, purpose, and faith. Though her earthly presence has passed, her spirit remains ever near—watching, guiding, and loving. Amen.”
