

Linda Kay Carithers

May 31, 1975 - March 4, 2022

Linda Kay Carithers, 46, came into the world May 31, 1975, the daughter of Stanley Carithers and Linda Gurley. She grew up in Charlotte and had been a resident since. Linda unexpectedly passed March 4, 2022. She worked for Brand RPM where she did shipping/receiving and embroidery work. Linda loved to personalize clothing and give it away, often times with her personal moniker, #HER. For her it wasn't just a job and an employer, but a family as well. When Linda was not working, she enjoyed spending time with her family, especially her grandbabies. When Tik Tok started, Linda had her grandbabies tiktoking too, they were brilliant at lip syncing to other people's words and creating funny videos. When she was around others, she ensured they were smiling as well. She touched many lives and was loved by many. Everyday she was full of life no matter the circumstances.

Linda is survived by four children: Stanley, Samantha Monzote, JaQuila Moore and Nino Brown; grandchildren: Giovanni, Gianna, Kingston, Natalia, Julianna, and John; Two daughters from other mothers: Dyeshon, Deona.

Linda is preceded in death by her parents and her sister, Annette.
