

Lois Jane Brody

May 3, 1958 - July 1, 2019

Lois Jane Brody, 61, of Charlotte, died unexpectedly on July 1, 2019.

Lois, or “L.J.” as she was also known, was born in Barberton, Ohio, on May 3, 1958, the daughter of Paul and Jean Gabor Reischman. She grew up there and after graduating from high school, met the father of her children, Tim Brody, a strapping young man with a kickass van. They were married and blessed with a son, James, while living in Ohio and subsequently another son, Nick, when they moved to North Carolina in 1984. While in Charlotte, she attended CPCC and graduated with a nursing degree from the Presbyterian Nursing Program. Blessed with a talent for caring for others, she used her nursing skills to help others in settings ranging from hospital to hospice to drug treatment programs. When not working, she loved caring for her golden retriever, Mia Bella, a continuation of her younger days raising them. She was also an incredible cook and her family enjoyed many a meal that she loved to prepare. Her recipes are still undiscovered but not for lack of trying by her family. Her faith was important to her and about two years ago was baptized at Meck Church. Most of all, as you can see, she loved time spent with family and friends, and always with a Diet Dr. Pepper in her hand. Her cooking, humor and love will be missed by all who knew her.

Lois is survived by her mother, Jean Reischman of Matthews, NC; the father of her children, Tim, of Calabash, NC; a son, James Brody of Charlotte; a son, Nick (wife Rachel) Brody of Charlotte; three brothers: Chuck (wife Gina) Reischman of Littleton, CO, Tim (wife Grace) of Morehead City, NC, and Brian Reischman of Lake Norman, NC; and her sister, Paula Smrcina of Matthews, NC. Lois is further survived by her former daughter-in-law and close friend, Michelle Reischman; as well as numerous other family and friends. She was preceded in death by her father, Paul.

Lois' family has given the family of Lowe-Neddo Funeral Home the privilege of caring for her and for them. All services will be held on Saturday, July 6. The family will receive friends at the funeral home beginning at 10:00 AM with a service to follow in the funeral home chapel at 11:00 AM. Following the service, Lois will be taken to her final place of earthly rest next to her father at Sunset Memory Gardens, 8901 Laywers Road, Charlotte.

In honor of her personal battle with diabetes over the last twenty years, the family would be honored for any donations in Lois' name be made to the Juvenile Diabetes Research Foundation, online at www.jdrf.org or to the local humane society of your choice.

Please take a moment to share a memory, photo or video with the family on Lois' Tribute Wall.

*So sorry for your loss! I remember when my grandmother “Mimi” babysat the kids. I enjoyed Lois and her sense of humor. I remember spending time babysitting as well as being her hairdresser, but most of all her fun spirit!
Prayers for all of you!*

“ *Lois and I met in Nursing School. I've been so blessed to have her in my life and be a part of hers. We claimed each other as sisters, we confided in one another, cried together but best yet we laughed together so much and so hard we cried again, but those were happy tears. I love her like a sister, she gave and gave and gave to anyone in need. She was one of the most intelligent nurses I've known and worked alongside.
I already miss her dearly. And her family...they are as wonderful as she! I love you all.*

“ Lois and I shared memories about her father and my brother Paul. She missed her Dad and had such good memories of him, as do I. We will miss both Lois and her Dad Paul. May they both rest in peace.

“ I first met Lois when she was in High School, she was a good friend of my sister. I went on to meet Lois's older sister who became a life long good friend. I remember Lois as being a feisty and funny girl.. This seems so unexpected. I'm sure she will be missed by her family and friends

“ May our Lord Jesus comfort all of us who are in sorrow during this time of loss.

Lois my youngest baby sister - and also the Mother to two wonderful boys, a wife, friend, and daughter. We will miss her, May the loving hands of your Heavenly Father wrap around you now and take you into His care.

And, may the peace of God, which passes all our understanding guard our hearts and minds in Christ Jesus as we bring our sorrow to the God who cares for us all.

*With all our love,
Fr. Charles J. Reischman, Gina, David, Matthew, and Anna

May Jesus Christ wrap His loving arms around you and bless you with the warmth of His loving smile, Lois. You are irreplaceable, especially to my sister, Patti Brown to whom you were attached at the hip to and made many great memories with. You will be dearly missed. Peace and blessings to your family and loved ones.

What a beautiful, kindred soul you were Lois! We had so much fun as neighbors many moons ago at Village Lake Apts. I'll never forget how you helped me sew some maternity clothes and the bedding for Austin's crib. You were such a hoot and had the quickest wit of anyone I knew! I will miss you dear friend and hope you're at peace. See you on the other side!! Love you dearly!
