

Maddalena E. Cerri

March 26, 1924 - June 7, 2022

Maddalena came to America from Italy to be a traveling companion and language coach for opera singer Gina Maretta. She was a Doctor of Languages and was fluent in English, Italian, French, German and Spanish. Later she taught French and Spanish in Miami Edison Senior High School, in Miami, Florida. As the Chairman of the Language Department, and founding the French Club, she brought everything to life for her students. As a lover of the Arts and Music, she joined Gina Maretta as General Manager in forming the Creative Opera Company in Miami, which promoted cultural elevation in the community by providing opportunities for aspiring young vocalists to perform. As a devout Catholic, she will be buried at Calvary Cemetery in Queens, New York with Gina Maretta and family, and closest friends for over sixty years being in America.

Tribute Wall

“ Maddalena E. Cerri

October 05, 2023 at 07:26 AM

“ Maddalena E. Cerri

October 24, 2022 at 08:52 PM