"Full of sass and vinegar!"

Margaret Hall Paul, 67, of Mint Hill, died Tuesday, August 2, 2016, at the Levine and Dickson Hospice House at Southminster where she had been the past few weeks.

“ The staff of the Todd Younker State Farm Agency, just learned of Ms. Margaret's passing. We are saddened by your loss and we will truly miss her. Ms. Margaret would come by with a pep in her step and twinkle in her eyes that meant "Watch Out". She was always kind and gracious even when telling us she didn't like something. One thing was certain she loved us and we loved her.

*We will miss you Ms. Margaret, you were our Good Neighbor.

My condolences for the family. I loved it when Margaret would be in one of her "devilish" moods and get that twinkle in her eye and when she did. It was game on!
