

Marjorie Ann Novotny

June 17, 1929 - September 24, 2013

Mrs. Novotny, 84, of Charlotte, passed away on Tuesday, September 24, 2013. Mrs. Novotny is survived by her loving daughter Kristi. Marjorie was preceded in death by her husband, Dallas, of 61 years, in March of 2012. Marjorie was born June 17, 1929 to the late Leroy and Mildred Hammer in Newton, Iowa. She attended the University of Iowa in Iowa City and completed her education at a business college in Des Moines. She worked for an ophthalmologist in Waterloo, Iowa for many years and as a medical secretary prior to moving to Charlotte in 1989. She enjoyed traveling to Las Vegas with her family and trips back to Iowa. Marjorie and Dallas played bingo together for many years at Saint John Neumann Catholic Church in Charlotte. She adored animals growing up on a farm and later her beloved household pets, most recently, her dachshund, Lucy. She will be greatly missed by her daughter Kristi and family in Iowa, but they are also comforted by knowing Marjorie and Dallas are reunited in Heaven.

“ Aunt Marj- always laughing heartily, always smiling! I remember Thanksgiving and Christmas dinners at their 2 story home there in Waterloo. And always looked forward to seeing their car pull into our driveway when they came to visit us. Rick and Marj use to laugh and make fun of our Dumplings and Sauerkraut. She use to call them "bullets".... Aunt Marj adored her daughter and husband. You could tell that they truly enjoyed being together. It is a sad day knowing that both Aunt Marj and Uncle Dallas are gone but comforting knowing they are together again. I will remember all the good times and laughs we shared as a family and hope that Kristi will let those good memories help her thru these sad times. We love her and will never forget her.
