“Mrs. Hausle was a kind and gentle "mom-to-all" on Louvaine Avenue. As kids we would have "festivals" and could always count on Mrs. Hausle to donate some delicious fudge. She welcomed all of us into her home and her family. How lucky we were to have known her!

She was inspiring as DRE and encouraged me to teach. She was encouraging as music director and ALWAYS changed the key of the songs to make it easiest for the people to sing. She was helpful as a pianist and patient to teach singers. Most of all she was faithful, kind and sweet. We all loved her. Rest in peace dear one, play piano and sing with the angels!
