“ I met Mavis in the 1970s when Ashley and Chris made her a grandmother and she became grandmother extraordinaire. Never were grandchildren and later great grandchildren cherished more than Nanny's. Down through the years through happiness and heartache Mavis met it all with strength and grace. I never had a conversation with her that we didn't have a good laugh about something. These last few years when she has had health problems, Pat has been by her side through it all. Ashley and her family had her for a few weeks for "rehab" after a fall. Chris came up every time he could to see Nanny. Nanny filled all their lives with great memories which I hope will carry them through their grief.
