

Pamela Joyce Sargent

July 30, 1960 - June 1, 2024

Pamela Joyce Sargent, born to Don and Margaret Worley in Martinsville, Virginia, on July 30, 1960, entered heaven on June 1, 2024. Pam was a beloved mother, daughter, sister, aunt, and friend, who will be deeply missed by all who knew her.

She is survived by her mother Margaret, her son Brandon and his wife Lauren, their sons Lucas, Ethan, and Isaac, her sister Dana and husband Michael, their children Emily, Jonathan, and Katherine, as well as her cousin Beth and her daughter Meagan.

Pam spent the majority of her life in Matthews, North Carolina, before recently relocating to Nancy, Kentucky, to be closer to her son and his family. Fueled by her passion to create and nurture, Pam enjoyed gardening both flowers and vegetables, walking her dogs in the countryside, and embarking on new art projects such as crewel embroidery and painting.

Pam had a quick wit and a great sense of humor, often joking that she was melting anytime the temperature rose above 70 degrees.

While we grieve Pam's physical absence on earth, we find peace in celebrating her eternal home in Heaven, knowing that she is with the Lord forever. Pam's greatest wish was for her beloved grandsons Luke, Ethan, Isaac, to experience the boundless grace and transformative power of Jesus and to lead lives filled with joy, kindness, and purpose as they follow the His footsteps.

Pam's family extends their gratitude to all who have shown love and support to Pam and to us. We appreciate each of you and are thankful and blessed to have you in our lives.

“ I am so sad to hear that Pamela has lost her fight with cancer. She had such a big heart and an infectious smile. She was kind, caring and a great friend. She was so proud of her son Brandon, and she loved her grandchildren. She was a proud grandmother - nothing made her happier. She meant a lot to all of us and will be truly missed by her Bank family and myself.
