June 21, 1938 - October 22, 2025

Patricia Ann Clark, age 87, passed away peacefully on October 22, 2025, in Charlotte, North Carolina, where she had made her home for the past 46 years. Born in Pike County, Kentucky, Patricia was the beloved daughter of John Ingram and Laxie Adams Ingram Weatherford. She was raised in Logan, West Virginia, where the values of family, faith, and resilience took root and flourished throughout her life.

Patricia dedicated many years of service to JC Penney, where she worked as a Customer Service Representative. Her warm smile, steady presence, and genuine care for others made her a cherished colleague and friend to many. She brought grace and kindness to every interaction, whether behind the counter or in the quiet moments of everyday life.

She is survived by her devoted husband, Paul M. Clark; her son, Paul M. Clark II of Charlotte; and her grandson, Kelly B. Clark of Fort Mill. Patricia's love for her family was unwavering, and her legacy lives on in the lives she nurtured and the hearts she touched.

She was preceded in death by her parents, John Ingram and Laxie Adams Ingram Weatherford; her son, John Russell Clark; and her brother, John Paul Ingram. Their memories remained close to her heart, and she spoke of them often with tenderness and reverence.
