“ Debbie and Joey,

So sorry for your loss. Patty and I were real close cousins and I will miss her very much. I remember staying some in the summertime in Wilmington with her and Aunt Gertie. We would play monopoly all day until time for Aunt Gertie to come home and then we would make an attempt to clean house. Of course we would get into trouble every time. We shared alot of memories in McColl at Grandma Scott's house. She was a beautiful person.
