

Pearl Malone Archbold

December 27, 1918 - November 11, 2012

Mrs. Archbold died on Sunday November 11, 2012 at Lake Park Nursing Home. She was born on December 27, 1918 in Old Providence, Columbia in Central America to loving parents Harmon and Virginia Archbold. The family migrated to Colon, Republic of Panama when Pearl was only three months old, along with her siblings Felix and Douglas.

She grew up in the community of Silver City, located in the canal zone where she attended elementary and high school.

Pearl met and married her sweetheart Victor Sowley in June of 1940. Of this union her first born daughter Zoila L. Sowley was born. After twelve years she brought forth a second daughter Ninfa Angelica.

In late 1962 Pearl (also known as Perla) relocated to the United States of America. Her family later joined in New York in 1964 and 1967. She was employed at the Carlyle Hotel in New York City for many years and retired in December of 1983 and cared for her aging mother.

In April of 2003 she once again relocated to Panama where she resided with her beloved daughter Zoila and son-in-law Pacheco. In April of 2009 she decided to relocate to Charlotte, North Carolina to live with her daughter Ninfa, granddaughter Erikka and great granddaughter Jahquis.

Pearl was affectionately called "Mami", "Perlie", "Perla", "Mamabuela" and "Tia Perla" by many. She leaves to mourn beloved daughters Zoila and Ninfa, granddaughter Mariela and son-in-law George, granddaughters Roxana and Erikka, grandson Brent, great granddaughters Jahquis and Isabella, nephew Antonio and wife Omaid, niece Vilma and spouse Lawrence; along with a host of relatives and friends.
