“ We are so sorry dearest Georgia to learn of your Peter's passing. It has been a privilege to know him, though much too briefly... after time spent with Peter we would remarked what a kind and remarkable man. So very smart and quick witted. He expressed passion and love for his faith. And it was contagious. Peter helped us love Christ and Orthodoxy better each time we were with him. We send love and prayers at this painful time. May his memory be eternal.

Peter would have loved this. The church which he is standing in was built by the Romans of Colchester soon after the "peace of the church" in 313AD under Constantine the great .Built in 320AD and abandoned in around 400AD This was surprise excavation in 1980 .This past Saturday 18th August 2018 we held a service here, and will continue to do so from time to time .Peter loved to be associated with the oldest church in Britain. from his friend Alan Pennie
