She is further survived by numerous nieces, nephews, other relatives and friends. She was preceded in death by her parents; the father of her son, David Wade Jarvis, Sr.; her sister, Barbara Jean Pipkin; and a sister-in-law, Betty Sue Hensley.

Service honoring the life, love and blessing of Bitsy will be held at Carolina Memorial Park of Harrisburg. 12015 University City Boulevard, Charlotte, NC 28213. A graveside service led by Pastor Hugh Foy will be held at 2:00 PM with the family receiving friends at the graveside one hour prior to services.

“ Bitsty, what a wonderful and beautiful friend, and co worker. She had the ability to always make you feel better when you were having a bad day. She loved life and people very much and always had a smile or a hug for you. She will be really missed. With sincere sympathy and love, Fran Chapman

“ I remember Bitsy well. We worked together at Delmar years ago. I will always remember her bright personality and positive attitude. She was fun and a joy to be around. I lost touch after I left Delmar. I did stop by from time to time in the early 80s, but haven't seen her since. The world and her family have lost a great person. Everyone is in my prayers.

“ I sure hate hearing this. She wasn't just a co-worker but a friend for many years. I remember one time years ago, Bitsy, my daughter, and myself went to Carowinds. I was scared to death to let her ride anything because of her previous heart attack. She rode everything. Roller Coasters and all. She was so funny. Rest in peace Bitsy. Sherry Starnes
