“ To my loving and adored husband. I started to live when I met you. Your strength helped me get through every day. We have some of the greatest memories on earth. Never to be forgotten the wisdom you possessed. You knew more about everything than all the people I know. Our blended family I will treasure for the rest of my life. They have helped me get through these very, very tough times of being without you. You will be in my life from now until eternity. I know you are finally at peace and not hurting anymore which is a wonderful thing. I love you and will cherish your memory for the rest of my life. Your loving wife.

“ Dad, I love you so much. It wasn't your time. I hoped to celebrate our birthdays together and Thanksgiving. But other plans were made. You fought so hard but it was just too much. RIP.
