“ Please accept our sincere condolences during this difficult time. The loss of a dear loved one can be like a heavy burden to carry. Although friends and family are a source of comfort, there is someone else who truly cares and feels your pain. He is the Father of tender mercies and the God of all comfort. (2 Corinthians 1:3,4) So that we will have a reason to hope and to look ahead, he has promised that in the future death and suffering will not exist. (Revelation 21:4)

“ I recently read about the death Rianna. Although we are not acquainted please accept my condolences. 2 Corinthians 1:3 says: "Blessed be the God and Father of tender mercies and the God of all comfort." That bible verse indicates that God can help his faithful servants to endure any problem or challenge that they may face. One way God does this is providing comfort through others such as family, friends and in this case even ones we may not be acquainted with personally.

Jesus said "I am the resurrection and the life. He that exercises faith in me, even though he dies, will come to life." (John 11:25) The bible teaches that the dead will live again. While Jesus was on earth, he showed that he is able to resurrect the dead. Under the rule of his kingdom , the heavenly king Jesus Christ will resurrect untold numbers of people to life here on earth but under peaceful and righteous conditions.

Revelation 21:3,4 describes what conditions will be like under this kingdom. He promises us that death, sickness, sorrow and pain will all be done away with. Jesus also promised at John 5:28,29 " Do not marvel at this because the hour is coming which all those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice and come out"

May the memories of Rianna strengthen you as the day's progress toward the soon to be realized resurrection. Please visit www.jw.org to read more encouraging bible topics.
