

Robbie Lee Dixon

April 6, 1962 - September 15, 2020

Robbie Lee Dixon, 58, of Mint Hill, passed away on Tuesday, September 15, 2020, at Atrium Health – CMC Main in Charlotte, after a short battle with lung cancer.

Robbie was born in Charlotte on April 6, 1962, the son of Bobby and Margaret Prevatte Dixon. He grew up in Charlotte and spent part of his years living in Lumberton with his grandfather. He graduated from Mitchell Community College in Mooresville and went to work for the City of Charlotte Water Department. He earned his Master Plumber designation and was an infield supervisor. While working for the Water Department, he volunteered with the Mooresville Fire Department before ultimately joining the fire department full time.

When not working, Robbie enjoyed the outdoors, especially fishing and hunting. He was an avid deer hunter, and when not hunting, he enjoyed gardening, racing and football. Most of all, he enjoyed time spent with his family and friends.

Robbie is survived by his son, Robert Dixon of Mooresville; his mother, Margaret Disney of Mint Hill; siblings: Tammie (Scott) Dennis of Mint Hill; Shannon (Michael) Disney-Smith of Charlotte; and his girlfriend of 16 years, Margaret Baldrige of Mint Hill. He is further survived by his niece, Misty Elmore Joyal as well as numerous other relatives and friends. He was preceded in death by his father.

Friends may call upon the family from 6 to 9 pm on Thursday, September 17, 2020, at the family home, 6364 Wilson Grove Road, Mint Hill, NC 28227.

Services honoring the life, love and blessing of Robbie will be held at 3:30 pm on Friday, September 18, at Mint Hill Baptist Church, 7835 Matthews-Mint Hill Rd, Mint Hill, NC 28227. All services will conclude at the church.
