

Robert Dale Blackwell

February 18, 1944 - October 23, 2012

Robert Dale Blackwell, 68, of Charlotte, died Tuesday, October 23, 2012. Bob, as he like to be called, was born in Charlotte on February 18, 1944, the son of Ernest Dale and Willie Mae (Blue) Blackwell. With a natural ear for music, Bob loved to play the piano, organ, and guitar. A servant to others in life, Bob joined the Charlotte Police Department and then the Matthews Police Department, from which he resigned in 1988 after 20 years of service. Most of all, he loved his family and he will be sadly missed by them and all who knew him.

Bob is survived by his mother, Wilie Mae Blackwell of Charlotte; three children: Tim (Trisha) Blackwell of Eagle Springs, NC, Adam and Robert Blackwell, both of Charlotte; two granddaughters: Lilly and Ada Blackwell; and two sisters: Brenda Williams and Cindy (Ray) Thomas. He was preceded in death by his father, Ernest Dale Blackwell and a brother-in-law, Jim Williams.

“ *Tim and family,
Sorry to learn of Bob's passing. Lo and I were neighbors of Bob on Club Road in 1973-1974. Of course Lo and Bob had been friends for many years. Unfortunately we lost contact but we never forgot you all, We spoke of the good ole days often. I don't know if you were old enough to remember us or not. I think the last time I remember seeing you was when Bob lived on Pecan Ave. A lot of has gone on since then. Bob was a good man. I hope you have good memories to carry with you. May you find peace and comfort in knowing others are remembering you in thought and prayer. I would love to hear from you and learn what you have been doing. I know you turned 40 in August because you were born around the day I graduated from Presbyterian School of Nursing which was August 4, 1972.*

Yours in Christ,

Lo and Janice Walker
