“ I can't begin the heart break that I have for you Bobby.... You and I were a team and there are way too many memories for me to even begin. I have no words to grasp how I am feeling and I don't understand why this happened... I love you more than words will ever explain. You were my only sibling and I never knew how important that would mean.... I miss you and that smile and I will always miss the way we would compete with each other in our crazy funny ways....please watch over the family and.... until we see each other again.. I love you!!

Your sister..... Jennifer
