

Roy Jack Coley

July 6, 1941 - December 5, 2013

Roy Jack Coley, 72, of Charlotte, died December 5, 2013, at Mercy Hospital in Charlotte.

Roy "Pop" was born in Charlotte on July 6, 1941, the son of Ervin Jack and Lydia (nee Miller) Coley. After school he worked as a mechanic and in 1960, he met Etta Jean Floyd. In 1961, he and Etta were married. Together, they were blessed with two children, Glenda and David. After their divorce in 1965, Roy married again and he and his wife Lynn had four children: Bobby, Billy, Roy Lee, and Cathy. Roy and Lynn divorced and 19 years after he and Etta separated, Roy and Etta remarried and Roy became a father to three more children: Patricia, Jerry, and Travis. Etta preceded him in death on June 28, 1996.

Roy is survived by children: Glenda Coley of Jacksonville, NC; Bobby (wife Susan) Coley of Charlotte; Billy Coley of Maryland; Roy Lee Coley of Charlotte; Cathy Phillips of Havloc, NC; Patricia (husband, Rodney) Chance of Charlotte; Jerry (wife Brenda) White of Charlotte; and Travis (wife Margaret) Coley of Aynor, SC. Roy is also survived by two sisters: Jackie Collins and Mary Parker, both of Stanley, NC. He is further survived by 10 grandchildren, 17 great grandchildren, and numerous nieces, nephews, other relatives, and friends. He was preceded in death by his son, David, and his parents.

Private graveside services will be held on Tuesday, December 10th, 2013, at Sharon Memorial Park. Roy's family has given the family of Lowe-Neddo Funeral Home the privilege of serving them during this time. For further information, please call 704.545.3553.
