

Ruth Morris

September 12, 2012

Ruth came into the world with a bang as she was born on the birthday of our country, July 4, 1921 to Althea Moore in Atlantic City, New Jersey where she lived until she graduated high school. Ruth then moved to Manhattan, where she lived with her Aunt Ruth while completing her nursing degree. Ruth then took a position at Sloan Kettering Hospital where she worked for 35+ years as a nurse.

Ruth met Emmitt Morris in Manhattan and they were married September 23, 1941. The couple remained in Manhattan until they retired to Charlotte, NC to be closer to some of Emmitt's family and friends. They loved Charlotte and retirement.

In 1993 Ruth and Emmitt joined the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter Day Saints, having no children of their own they became grandparents to all the children in the ward.

As their health declined they moved into Lawyers Glen Assisted Living. Emmitt passed away in 2002 and Ruth remained at Lawyers Glen until her passing. She dearly loved all of her friends (staff and residents) that she grew to know there. She would always say "what a blessing you are to me". "The Lord has truly blessed me with such wonderful friends". She never spoke an unkind word and was always willing to help others. She was truly loved by all who knew her. She will be sorely missed. We chose the song "Count Your Blessings" as she always commented on the many ways she was blessed through others.
