

Sally Piereschi Crespo

January 11, 1932 - July 15, 2016

Sally Piereschi Crespo, 84, of Matthews, died July 15, 2016 at Carrington Place Rehabilitation and Living Center. She was born Jan. 11, 1932 in Sabana Grande, Puerto Rico, to the late Miguel Piereschi and Ana Filomena Piereschi. She worked as an international and military button sales representative for Emsig Manufacturing Corp. in New York for more than 50 years.

Mrs. Crespo never knew a stranger or forgot a friend, always willing to offer a helping hand and friendly conversation. She loved and cared for all animals, especially her champion show Dalmatians, and later, any stray cat or bird in need of food or medical care. She was lifelong learner, trying her hand at real estate, dog grooming, pottery or anything that piqued her interest. She loved to cheer for her favorite teams, including the N.Y. Yankees or her top pick on "Dancing with the Stars." She was a member of St. John Neumann Catholic Church and enjoyed spending time at the Levine Senior Center. Mrs. Crespo was preceded in death by her parents; brother, Mike Piereschi; and her former neighbor-turned-lifelong friend, Maria Echandi. She is survived by her son, Frank Crespo, and wife, Joan, of Mint Hill; sister-in-law, Miriam Piereschi, of New Jersey; niece, Miriam Piereschi Sasso, of New Jersey; nephew Billy Piereschi, of New York; grandchildren, Emily Crespo, of Charlotte, and Carrie Causey, and spouse, Lee, of Huntersville; and great-grandchildren, Julie Causey and Claire Causey. The family will receive friends from 10-11 a.m., Tuesday, July 19 at St. John Neumann Catholic Church with a Mass immediately following at 11 a.m. in the church sanctuary. The family would like to offer its appreciation to all of the caregivers and doctors who have helped her over the years.

Lowe-Neddo Funeral Home is serving the family.
