

Susan Ann Jackson

March 25, 1966 - January 24, 2025

Susan Ann Jackson, a beacon of joy and kindness, passed away peacefully on January 24, 2025, in Maiden, North Carolina, at the age of 58. Born on March 25, 1966, in Dillon, South Carolina, Susan's life was a tapestry woven with love, laughter, and an unwavering sense of family.

Susan's journey began as the cherished daughter of Archie Jackson and Margaret Rich, who both preceded her in death, along with her beloved granddaughter. Her zest for life and caring nature were evident from a young age, traits that only flourished as she grew.

In her lifetime, Susan was the loving wife of Gregorio, her devoted partner with whom she shared countless swims and adventures, whether in the tranquility of a pool or the embrace of a lake. Together, they created a home filled with warmth and welcome.

A proud mother to April Britt, Tony Tran, Tammy Hernandez, and Scott Tran, Susan was the heart of her family. Her legacy continues through her 16 grandchildren, who were the light of her life. She instilled in them the same values of love and kindness that she lived by every day.

Susan was also a beloved sister to her three brothers and three sisters, with whom she shared an unbreakable bond. Her family was her fortress, and within it, she was both a stronghold and a sanctuary.

Susan's infectious personality and genuine friendliness made her a cherished friend to many. She was often described as the life of the party, and her presence alone could transform any gathering into a celebration. Her ability to make friends wherever she went was a testament to her open heart and generous spirit. Her caring and loving ways were a comfort to all, and her ability to make someone smile was a gift that she gave freely and often.

As an avid lover of family gatherings, Susan's happiest moments were surrounded by her grandchildren, whose laughter and joy were music to her ears. She believed in the power of family, and her home was a haven of love and laughter for all who entered.

Susan Ann Jackson's life was a testament to the beauty of kindness and the strength of family bonds. She will be deeply missed by her husband, children, grandchildren, siblings, and the countless friends who were blessed to know her. Her memory will live on as a guiding light of love, a reminder to cherish every moment, and to always be the reason someone smiles.

Her family has given the family of Lowe-Neddo Funeral Home the privilege of caring for her and for them. A service celebrating her love, life and blessing will be held at 1 pm on Tuesday, February 4, 2025, in the funeral home chapel, 4715 Margaret Wallace Road, Matthews, NC 28105. The family will receive friends from noon until the time of service. Interment will follow the service at Evergreen Cemetery in Charlotte.
