

Thomas Aquinas Green

October 4, 1954 - May 2, 2014

Thomas Aquinas Green, 59, of Charlotte, while under the care of hospice, died with his brother at his side at his home on Friday, May 2, 2014.

Thomas was born in New Bruswick, New Jersey, on October 4, 1954, the son of William F.X. Green and Mary Alice Cooney. He graduated from Trinity College in Ireland. During the Vietnam War, Thomas answered his country's call to service and honorably served in the United States Navy. On June 19, 1979, he married Nancy Griffith. Before his health forced retirement, he had worked as a Vice President with a printing company.

Services are pending and updates will be posted as they are finalized. Please take a moment to share photos and memories on this memorial site.

“ Hello my love. This is first year without you. I have been sad, but know u would not like that. I want to celebrate yr life, just as u told me to. Will never replace you in my heart. As you know u are and always will be best person I know. Always love a challenge, and u and I together always had one. Ha..but true. Feel you with me everyday baby and count on it my sweetheart. Anyway, today is your day for peace and to be with God. You are home now. See u soon. Nanny gal

“ Hey baby, nanny here. talk to you every nite and will always love you. Know you are with me all the time. Just put on music flying shoes. we had them and I still do. Made me smile. I will be tying on my shoes on my flying shoes soon. give me a hint when. As we both said numerous times "catch you on the rerun". always with you love, and be with you soon. Gods will.
