

Thomas Mitchell Stutts II

September 16, 1976 - November 27, 2017

Thomas Mitchell Stutts II, 41, of Charlotte, North Carolina, died unexpectedly November 27, 2017.

Tommy as he was called, was born in Charlotte on September 16, 1976, the son of Thomas Mitchell and Maria Teresa Perez Stutts. He grew up in Charlotte, graduating from South Mecklenburg High School. He then attended barber school and received his Master Barber's License. Outside of work he enjoyed going to the gym, swimming, rollerblading, biking, listening to his music, and cooking. In fact, not only did he love to cook, he had also worked at restaurants as a chef. He was proud of his appearance and was always well groomed. Tommy is further survived by numerous cousins, other relatives and friends. He was preceded in death by his maternal grandfather, Gilbert Diaz.
