

TyJuan Demetrius Collins "Tru"

February 1, 1987 - April 28, 2013

TyJuan "Tru" Demetrius Collins, 26, of Charlotte, NC, passed away suddenly on April 28, 2013.

Born on February 1, 1987, in Newark, New Jersey, TyJuan is the son of William Collins and Rhonda Gibson. He was a promising entrepreneur, who recently started his own company, Tru Cuts Tree Removing and Yard Service. TyJuan's plan was to expand the company into several components and was accomplishing this by approaching potential investors and building a solid clientele base.

TyJuan loved his family and friends-both great in numbers. Small in stature; however, his personality was enormous. We can all agree his smile was infectious. He would charm you even if you had to reprimand him. TyJuan recently acquired a new love, a 2006 black Nissan Pathfinder. He took great pride in his truck...so much that you could not take it from him, even if you tried.

TyJuan was predeceased by his grandfathers, William Clyde Collins and Frederick Jackson.

In addition to his parents, he is survived by his loving paternal grandmother, Katie Collins Jackson, who raised him from two years of age. His siblings include brothers: Cordell, Daniel, David, Raphael, Godfear, Men, and K'ron; sisters: Lauren, Leah and Rhyann; maternal grandmother, Tia O. Gibson. He is further survived by numerous uncles, aunts and cousins.

The funeral service for TyJuan is Friday, May 3, 2013 at 2PM in the funeral home chapel with the family receiving friends an hour prior to the service.

Thank you for your continued thoughts, prayers, and acts of kindness to the family.

“ I regret I never had the courage to know you, my brother. Thats a regret I will carry with me until I die. Maybe if I had you'd still be here, and I'd be sending this message to somewhere other than an obituary. Much love brother, may you lay down in peace and be comfortable in the arms of God until I get to see you and we can finally be together. RIP brother; to your memory. May you live free forever more and in the hearts of your friends, family, and loved ones who we still have work to accomplish in the earth. May your strength, love, and empowerment shower us all from heaven. I love you brother. I only wish I could have told you that in person

“ My heart goes out to you all....I know I never got to meet you all in the short time me an him was dating. I loved that man. We had a history going back all the way to middle school. Tyjuan was a genuine and all around good person ...He was doing the right thing, he wasnt in these streets, and didnt want to be. He was soo excited about life and his second chance at it. Every morning I seen this man jump ready to go to work...I wud sometimes go with him...and the look on his face was priceless. He was so excited about his business and making his own money...It made me want to go harder in everything I did...He gave me peace of mind and motivation and not only that showed me that love is still possible...smh it hurts.... I cant believe he gone. I dont understand it at all....Im tryn not to question God's will but its hard. I couldnt understand after being thru what I been thru an God finally sendn me this wonderful man..why would he take it back??? ...the only explanation came to mined was that Tyjuan Collins was a Fallen Angel... God needed him back. R.I P. baby I love you!
