

Virginia Dale Masterson

December 30, 1950 - April 12, 2019

Virginia Dale Masterson, 68, of Mint Hill, NC, died suddenly at her home on April 12, 2019.

Born in Charlotte on December 30, 1950, she was the daughter of Jessie Clyde and Mary Helms King. She loved taking pictures, drawing, her flowers and chatting it up on Facebook, making people smile with all her shares. She also loved her dogs very much, as most of you know. She had the biggest heart when it came to things she believed in. She did not have a lot and did not leave a lot, but she made the best with what she had. She was a tough 'Mawmaw' and Mother. But, wherever she went, she brought smiles to peoples' faces and will be sadly missed by all who knew her

Virginia is survived by her fiancé, Dewey Roberts of Black Mountain, NC; three daughters: Cynthia (husband Jeffrey) Dillard of Charlotte, Michelle Freeman McWhirter of Monroe, and Alicia Freeman of Matthews; grandchildren: Joshua Freeman, Kegan Freeman, Justin Freeman, Matthew McWhirter, Skylar Freeman and Lilah Jackson; and great grandson, Weston Cash Freeman; and Dewey's children: Nikki Frye of Charlotte and Crystal Mitchell of Asheville, NC. She is further survived by her sister, Linda (husband "L.D.") Cain of Locust, NC; her canine companions, Lulu and Rocky; a special friend Bill Hardy; a niece, Denise (husband Dewey) Whited of Kannapolis, NC; a nephew, David (wife Jeanelle) Cain of Locust, NC; a nephew Brian (wife Corrella) Cain of Locust; nephew, Jeff Blalock; and a nephew, David Blalock; well as numerous other relatives and friends. She was preceded in death by her parents; a sister, Odessa Blalock; and a nephew, Donald Blalock.
