

Wai Ying Pearson

December 15, 1936 - June 11, 2016

Wai Ying Pearson, 79, passed away peacefully at Levine & Dickson Hospice House at Southminster on June 11th, 2016 in Charlotte, NC. She was born on December 15th, 1936 in Shanghai, China. She lived in Charlotte and in the San Francisco Bay Area. She is survived by her daughters, Cindy Du and Sunny Garner of Stallings, NC; sons, Randy Li of Shanghai, China, and Sunyo Pearson of London, England; godson, Bill Dai of Charlotte; grandchildren, John Li, Adrian Chen, Carmen Pearson, Ian Garner, Andrew Garner, and Jerryl Pearson; great-grandchildren, Kaylee Chen, Kaycee Chen and Kate Lawrence.

Wai Ying was a loving mother and grandmother who loved traveling and sampling great cuisines from around the world. We'll miss her quick wit, strong will, fun and spontaneous personality. A service to celebrate her life will be held on Tuesday, June 14 at 6:30 p.m. at Charlotte Chinese Baptist Church at 7225 Pence Rd, Charlotte, NC 28215. In lieu of flowers, donations may be made to the Levine & Dickson Hospice House at Southminster who lovingly cared for Wai Ying during her final days.
