

Yevgeniy "Eugene" Mojjevelov

January 31, 1981 - July 18, 2013

Yevgeniy "Eugene" Mojjevelov, 32, of Brooklyn, NY, and who had recently been living in Charlotte, NC, died unexpectedly on Thursday, July 17, 2013, in Charlotte.

Eugene was born in Leningrad, Russia, on January 31, 1981, the son of Viatcheslav Trifonov and Tatiana Mojjevelova. He came to the United States in December of 1992. With a love of the Lord and others around him, Eugene was very involved in ministry. He helped others with construction, working as a live-in caretaker, and breaking down the language barrier as a translator of Russian to English. He was also very active in Outreach City Ministry where he helped those in need find the rehab services to change their lives.

Ever active in his church, "Domotsa" or "Father's House" Church, he was a respected and active organizer for a "Homegroup". His knowledge of the Bible was exhaustive, and he was often quoting and helping others apply biblical principals to their everyday lives. He had a phenomenal memory, and never forgot the dates that were so important to his friends, including their birthdays and anniversaries.

He worked tirelessly to coordinate meeting places, food, and activities each week for his group. Always active, he loved bowling, movies, hiking, and just going out with friends. He also loved to sing and collected compact discs.

Eugene was truly a light to many and he will be sadly missed by all who knew him.

On Sunday, July 21, 2013, Pastor Alex Prosvetov of Domotsa will lead the funeral services for Eugene. Services will be held at 2:30 PM at the Lowe-Neddo Funeral Home Chapel, 4715 Margaret Wallace Road in Matthews. Following the services, all are invited to gather at the church for food and fellowship.
