

Zoia Zolotareva

April 14, 1936 - March 16, 2020

Zoia Mikhailovna Zolotareva, 83, of Fort Mill, SC, died at her home on March 16, 2020. Zoia was born in the USSR on April 14, 1936, the daughter of Mikhail and Alexandra Grosheff. She attended Rostov University and obtained an engineering degree. Zoia went on to work as a Civil Engineer. In 1962, she married Oleg Zolotarev who preceded her in death in June 19, 2017. Though she made many trips to the United States, it was in 1994 that she came to the United States permanently. Zoia enjoyed many things in life, especially music, reading books and poetry. What she enjoyed most, however, was time spent with her family and praying with her church family. Ever the grandmother, she never stopped worrying about her grandchildren.

Zoia is survived by two sons: Mikhail (wife Irina) Zolotarev of Fort Mill, SC, and Alexander (wife Theresa) Zolotarev of Weddington, NC; grandchildren: Sergey (wife Emily), Ekaterina, Nicholas, Karina, Andre and Luke. She is further survived by a great grandchild, Anna; a sister, Nina Batsoutenko of Connecticut; and numerous other relatives and friends. She was preceded in death by her husband, two older brothers and her parents.

The family of Lowe-Neddo Funeral Home has been privileged to care for Zoia. Services were held at Reigning Mother of God Russian Orthodox Church with Father Alexander leading the service. Interment then took place at Evergreen Cemetery in Charlotte.
